The RTO is unable to commence the course for which the original enrolment and payment has been made.	Full refund or alternative placement in a course
The RTO is unable to continue to deliver the course as agreed.	Partial refund or alternative placement in a course

Note: There is no refunds for course resources purchased (i.e. workbooks, PPE etc).

Extenuating circumstances

Students may have extenuating circumstances that prevent them from attending scheduled course dates. These circumstances may include (but are not limited to):

- Illness, Family or personal matters
- Other extraordinary reasons

Where evidence can be successfully provided to support the student's circumstances, course fees may either be transferred to the next available course where applicable, or a refund of unused course fees will be issued. This decision of assessing the extenuating circumstances rests with the RTO Manager and shall be assessed on a case by case situation.

Please note: where the student breaches the conditions of enrolment no refund is payable.

This policy and the availability of complaints and appeals processes, does not remove your right to take action under Australia's consumer protection laws, including but not limited to a statutory cooling off period if one applies.

Can Australian Institute of Engineering assist with any support systems? If yes, please list:

After reviewing the course, do you wish to make an application for RPL?

- YES - I would like to make an application for RPL
- No

RPL or Recognition of Prior Learning is a process for formally recognising and assessing prior learning and competencies that lead to nationally recognised credit or advanced standing. This is achieved by completing relevant assessments and interviews to determine your skill and knowledge against competency criteria for the relevant module(s) or unit(s). For further information please contact your Trainer and Assessor.

- YES - I would like to make an application for Credit Transfer
- No

Credit Transfer is formal recognition of modules/units completed at another training organisation. Credit transfers are essentially administrative processes. These are not formal enrolments in the normal sense, because they involve neither delivery nor assessment of the student's knowledge. Australian Institute of Engineering recognises only formal documentation such as qualification testamurs, Statements of Results and/or Statements of Attainment. All documents must either be originals or a certified copy of the original document, you will also be required to provide Australian Institute of Engineering permission to verify your documentation with the issuing RTO. If you believe you are eligible for Credit Transfer please complete the Credit Transfer Application Form and attach to your enrolment application with evidence.
